

WHEREAS, Section 1 of the Kansas Constitution provides, "All men are possessed of equal and inalienable natural rights, among which are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"; and

WHEREAS, This provision declaring an inalienable and equal right to life has been turned on its head by the erroneous interpretation of the Supreme Court of this state, which held in 2019 that the provision protects a woman's "right to decide whether to continue a pregnancy." Hodes & Nauser, MDS, P.A. v. Schmidt, 309 Kan. 610 (2019); and

WHEREAS, Such an interpretation--finding a right to commit prenatal homicide--is not only foreign and contrary to the plain language of the Kansas Constitution, it also violates the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which requires that "[n]o state...shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws"; and

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States provides, "This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof...shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding." Art. VI, Clause 2; and

WHEREAS, Innocent human life, created in the image of God, should therefore be equally protected under the laws from fertilization to natural death; and

WHEREAS, To ensure the right to life and equal protection of the laws, all preborn children should be protected with the same criminal and civil laws protecting the lives of born persons by repealing provisions that permit prenatal homicide and battery; and

WHEREAS, All persons potentially subject to such laws are entitled to due process protections; and

WHEREAS, Pregnant mothers should be protected from being pressured to abort their children; and

WHEREAS, Provisions should be repealed that may allow a person to aid, advise, hire, counsel, or procure a mother to abort her child. Now, therefore:
