ABORTION IS MURDER

and everybody knows it.

Kansas defines first-degree murder under K.S.A. 21-5402 as the intentional and premeditated killing of a person, while Kansas courts and the U.S. Department of Justice recognize the traditional definition of murder as "the unlawful killing of a human being with malice aforethought" (18 U.S.C. § 1111). Kansas law expressly includes unborn children within the terms "person" and "human being" for homicide offenses. (K.S.A. 21-5419)

KANSAS PRENATAL HOMICIDE CASES

01

2026–the Kansas Supreme Court affirmed two first-degree murder convictions against Dioniel Lee Sublett Jr. for shooting and killing his pregnant girlfriend, Kathleen Dampier, and her unborn child, approximately five months gestation.

02

2015–Scott Bollig conspired with a nurse to secretly administer mifepristone and misoprostol to his pregnant girlfriend, against her wishes. A jury convicted him of conspiracy to commit intentional first-degree murder, and the Kansas Court of Appeals affirmed the conviction.

03

2014–Bryant Seba shot and killed a pregnant bystander and her unborn child, approximately 12–15 weeks gestation. He was convicted of two counts of first-degree premeditated murder—one for each victim. The Kansas Supreme Court affirmed both convictions.

The problem is not that prenatal children aren't recognized as human or legal persons. The problem is that we refuse to protect every human equally.

KANSAS LAW CREATES A MURDER

EXCEPTION

Under K.S.A. 21-5419(b), abortionists and mothers are exempted from prosecution for their part in prenatal murder. This exception doesn't change the nature of the killing; it merely allows us to
